Numb. 545.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM MAY 17. TO MAY 24. 1739.

LONDON, Febr. 27. 1738,9.

YESTERDAY His Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers with the uſual State, attended in the State Coach by the Right Hon. the Earle of Albemarle, and the Lord Viſcount Falconberg, and gave the Royal Aſſent to the Malt Bill, and ſome Naturalization Bills.

March 1. We hear the Rev. Mr. Foſter lies dangerously ill of a Fever, at his Lodgings in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

On Thurſday Morning laſt died, much lamented, John Elbridge, Eſq; Comptroller of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in Briſtol.

March 8. We hear that the Houſe of Commons will certainly be pull'd down after this Seſſions of Parliament, and rebuilt in a large and commodious Manner to hold all the Members, it being now not large enough.

March 12. Yeſterday a Youth about fourteen Years of Age, paddled himſelf with two Trenchers in a large Butcher's Tray up the Thames, from Weſtminſter-Bridge to the Swan at Chelſea, for a large Wager.

March 13. Yeſterday died at his Houſe at Greſham-College, Ralph Gulſton, Eſq; an eminent Spaniſh Merchant of this City.

The ſame Day in the Morning died ſuddenly at his Houſe in North Street, Red-Lyon-Square, of an Inflammation in his Bowels, John Eyres, Eſq; of Berry's Hall, in Norfolk, a Roman Catholick Gentleman of 4000 l. per Annum.

March 14. Yeſterday Morning died at his Houſe in St. James's Place, of the Stone, the Right Hon. Charles Hamilton, Earl of Selkirk, aged 76; he was one of the Lords of the Bedchamber to his Majeſty, one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland, and Lord Clerk Regiſter of that Kingdom.

He will be ſucceeded in Honour and Eſtate by John Hamilton, Earl of Rutherglen, his younger Brother; and his perſonal Eſtate, which is computed at near 100,000 l. is left amongſt his Brothers, and other Relations.

We hear he will be ſucceeded as a Lord of the Bedchamber to his Majeſty, by the Right Hon. the Earl of Jerſey. And that the Right Hon. the Earl of Morton will be elected one of the ſixteen Peers of Scotland, in his room.

Private Letters from STOCKHOLM ſay, that ſome Affairs have been examin'd at the Diet, which were extremely diſagreeable to the King, it having, as is ſaid, been even deliberated in that Aſſembly, Whether the Conduct of this Prince in the Adminiſtration of Affairs, ſince his coming to the Crown, ſhould not be enquir'd into? The ſame Letters add; that the Intereſt of the Duke of Holſtein is as well eſtabliſh'd in Sweden as could be wiſh'd; and that the King will ſpeedily take a Journey to viſit his Territories in Germany.

To his Excellency SAMUEL OGLE, Eſq; Governor of Maryland:

The humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Delegates.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Liege Subjects, the Delegates of the Freemen of the Province of Maryland, in Aſſembly convened, beg Leave to return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for the kind Declarations in your Specch at the Opening of this Seſſion. We confeſs ourſelves at a Loſs to know certainly the Motives that induced your Excellency to the unprecedented Prorogation of the laſt Aſſembly: The Miſunderſtanding that then ſubſiſted, was due to a Miſapprehenſion of one of his Lordſhip's Council, in which, had a milder Medium been uſed, this Houſe would have readily undeceived the Gentleman, or that Honourable Board. And we are not forgetful of the Advances this Houſe then made for the Diſpatch of the Publick Buſineſs, by repeated Meſſages ſent by their Honourable Members. We are now again willing and deſirous to paſs by the unparallel'd Treatment of this Houſe in the Perſon of their Honourable Speaker, as alſo the manner of the then Prorogation, and that at a Time when the Repreſentative Body of the People were in the Execution of their Duty, doing Juſtice to their Conſtituents, and Honour to the Government, by endeavouring to bring to Light Offences and Offenders againſt both. We are very willing to put the mildeſt Conſtruction on theſe Proceedings, as alſo the ſubſequent Diſſolution of that Aſſembly, to the great Charge and Trouble of his Majeſty's Liege Subjects the good People of Maryland. We cannot paſs by in Silence a Circumſtance attending that Time, tho' trifling and minute in itſelf, by the Perſon, who altho' then under the Cenſure of the Delegates of the Freemen of Maryland, for having groſsly reflected on that Body in general, and ſome in particular, yet immediately thereupon put into a Place of Profit and Truſt in one of the Courts of Record. We humbly hope there is ſome Honour and Regard due to the Body of the People his Majeſty's Liege Subjects, and we are ſorry to ſee Merit made of that which ought to debaſe, and thoſe moſtly Careſs'd who are moſt Active in the Maltreatment and Oppreſſion of the good People of this Province.

We are now, as heretofore we were, fully convinced, that Heats and Animoſities are an ill Foundation for the Purſuit of the Public Good; wherefore we then did, as we now ſhall, endeavour what lies in our Power, to avoid giving Riſe to ſuch, and we humbly hope hope that no artful or colourable Pretences will be made uſe of to impede the Publick Buſineſs. On our Part we do with Truth and unfeigned Sincerity aſſure your Excellency, that we are come with a hearty Deſire and firm Reſolution to do every thing in our Power to promote the general Good and Welfare of the Province of Maryland, than which we have nothing more near at Heart.

Your Excellency is pleaſed to declare, as you often have, your good Intentions for the Welfare of this Province and People, and we are truly ſorry that your kind Reſolutions, ſo often publiſh'd, ſhould hitherto be fruſtrated and rendered void, by the malevolent Influence of evil Councils; ſuch may gain to themſelves private Advantage, while the Publick are ſacrificed to their Avarice and Ambition, and his Majeſty's poor, loyal and dutiful Subjects entirely deſtitute of Means to redreſs themſelves, ſinking under the Yoke of Bondage, be well pleaſed that they fare no worſe, than being brought to a State of Villenage.

Since your Excellency have been pleaſed to give us ſuch ſtrong Aſſurances of your Willingneſs to give a helping Hand to remove every Obſtacle to the Happineſs and Proſperity of the Province, we will humbly preſume, in full Hopes of your kind Concurrence and Redreſs, to lay before you ſuch Aggrievances and Oppreſſions as we take to be real Obſtacles to its Proſperity and Happineſs. And we moſt humbly hope your Excellency will not attribute the juſt Diſcharge of our Duty, or our moving with Decency, Order and good Manners in theſe Points wherein we feel ourſelves ſenſibly affected, to the want of Moderation and Temper; or a due Regard to your Perſon. We aſſure your Excellency that we ſhall with the greateſt Zeal and Coolneſs of Temper, purſue the general Good ſo far as we can, and avoid, as deſtructive Precipices, any ſiniſter or artful Practices of Self-intereſted or Deſigning Perſons, let their Pretences be veiled over by what Gloſs ſoever, and that ſuch ſhall in no ways influence our Words or Actions.

We hope your Excellency had the Publick, as well as his Lordſhip's Intereſt at Heart, in promoting the Continuance of the Payment of Rents, and Alienation Fines, as the ſame had for ſome Time before been, by a Duty on Tobacco, the Staple of this Province; and likewiſe that of paſſing the Currency emitted by his Lordſhip and the good People of this Province, in Payments to the Clergy and Officers: And with great Submiſſion, we take leave to judge favourably of thoſe, who through a ſenſe and deſire of doing Good, oppoſed the ſame, altho' they may have been miſtaken in Point of Judgment,

From many Conſequences we find, that this Government hath for ſome Time paſt, purſued it's own Profit and Benefit, but how far that turns to the Publick Good, thoſe who are ſenſible thereof will beſt judge; and we humbly conceive, that when the Repreſentative Body of the People refuſe any Advantage offered, it muſt proceed from an Error in Judgment, thro' want of due Reflection or impartial Deliberation, which we ſhall, from your kind Recommendation, make the beſt uſe of we are capable, in what Affairs ſhall come before us.

This Houſe is not acquainted with the Diſpoſition of the Clergy in point of their Forty per Poll, and ſhall always bear a juſt Regard to that Reverend Body, nor attempt to Intrude any Terms on them which may not ſuit their own Inclinations to accept of, but ſhall always be ready and willing to receive ſuch Propoſals as they may judge ſuitable to make. Your Excellency is pleaſed to Vouch for his Lordſhip's Officers good Inclination for the Publick Good. This is in your Excellency's Power to command; nor do we ſee any Reaſon to join the Income of the Church and State on the preſent Occaſion, the former being grounded on Law, the latter not. This Houſe having ſo many recent Inſtances of the People of this Province being made a Property to his Lordſhip's Officers, and the many Evils that proceed therefrom, that they are under the greateſt Apprehenſion of every Inſtance or Act that may put them into their Power or Mercy, the Effects of which hath too often, and daily doth, demonſtrate itſelf in the Ruin and Oppreſſion of many. We wiſh we had not good Reaſon to be aſſured, that the little Credit given by his Lordſhip's Officers to a Currency ſtruck by his Lordſhip and the People here, on the beſt Security, has not been the Means in a great Manner to depreciate the ſame. We acknowledge it is of the utmoſt Importance to this Province, to circulate and give a Credit to their Currency, but the former Reaſons, and the great Apprehenſion of further Evil, will weigh with us to let it take it's Chance on the Foundation whereon it now ſtands, which we are well aſſured muſt give it a due Credit in Time, againſt all the Attempts and Deſigns of the Enemies to that and our Welfare.

As we judge our Attempts or Endeavours would be Fruitleſs and Dangerous in relation to a General Law relating to the Paper Currency, we ſhall at preſent decline entring thereon. And we humbly conceive, that it is in his Lordſhip's, his Miniſter's and Officer's Power, to encourage the Settlement of the Back and Remote Parts of this Province; buthow far that is done by the exceſſiveneſs of Fees in Offices, and the High Terms of Rents at preſent reſerved (far exceeding any Thing of the Kind in any other Part of his Majeſty's American Dominions that we know of) ſhews it ſelf. Whatever lies in our Power ſhall be done with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs to promote the Enlargement of his Majeſty's Empire and Dominion in this Province, by encouraging the Settlement of theſe Back and Remote Parts, in Hopes that thereby the Export may be encreaſed towards Bettering his Majeſty's Revenue, and the Trade of our Mother Country Great Britain, as alſo the Advantages that may conſequently enſue to the Province.

We ſhall have a due Regard to any uſeful Laws which may expire with this Seſſion. The Security, Defence and Safety of this Province is ſo near and dear to us, that we ſhall be always ready and willing to do every thing requiſite and neceſſary to ſo good an End, and we aſſure your Excellency, that your Recommendations ſhall always have their due Weight with us. The Account which your Excellency has been pleaſed to lay before this Houſe, ſhall be conſidered, and we aſſure your Excellency, that if we find the ſame right and clear, we ſhall make no Objection thereto; and we doubt not but your Excellency will rather Approve than Condemn our Conduct, if we fairly and openly object againſt any erroneous Publick Accounts, it being our undoubted Right and Duty ſo to do. We hope that this Government hath no Enemies, nor will make any; and malicious private Whiſpers and groundleſs Inſinuations are weak Attempts which ought to be deſpiſed.

We aſſure your Excellency, that this Houſe will always to the beſt of their Knowledge, act openly, freely and candidly, and which Conduct moſt agreeable to native Britiſh Sincerity, the inſeparable Characteriſtick of every true Briton, we humbly hope will give no Offence.
